

The Murder Challenge!

Unbeknownst to the delegates, there will be a number of people at the lunch or dinner who will be introduced either as guests of the company from overseas or consultants with whom the company are planning to work for in the future. These guests will be actors from the Poisson Rouge 'Murder Squad'.

Prior to the event, we gather information about your company to find out about the corruption and intrigue that is really going on inside your business. Information such as nick-names, time-keeping habits, dress sense, expense account stories, in-jokes, buzz words, hobbies, what people tease each other about etc are all fair game.

We then write a bespoke murder mystery script which is uniquely and specifically tailored for this group.

Whilst mingling during pre-lunch or dinner drinks, the actors who will all have been given convincing alibis for being there will begin to interact with the guests. Then suddenly, and for no good reason a (staged) fight will develop between the actors and / or one of the senior hosts of the event.

From here onwards, various scenes will unfold revealing salacious and scandalous information about some of the guests culminating in a ghastly murder!!!!

Soon after, another of the actors will reveal himself as the Detective who has been on the trail of a brutal murderer and will now, with everybody's assistance - solve the crime.

During dinner, each table becomes a team, solving clues, completing tasks and generally spreading gossip. They may also have to complete a poem, write and perform a song and go head to head in key challenges to establish their innocence

Whichever person is 'murdered' will be reintroduced as an angel or devil so that they can still take part.

All Poisson Rouge murders are totally interactive, enormous fun and completely unique and different from any other.

Whatever the mood going into the dinner, we guarantee to have everyone crying with laughter by the end!
