

TV Production Challenge

Ever wanted to know how a TV studio works? Fancy yourself as a presenter? Reckon you can direct? Think you can operate a camera? Are you a good leader and able to organise other people?

But most importantly of all — how effectively do you work as a team under pressure?

Unlike many film experiences, this day is as near to professional TV as you can get. There is a role for everyone in producing a Live 6-8 minute show;

- Presenter & Guests
- Director
- PA
- Vision Mixer
- Sound Engineer
- Camera Operators
- Autocue
- Floor Manager
- Lighting Director

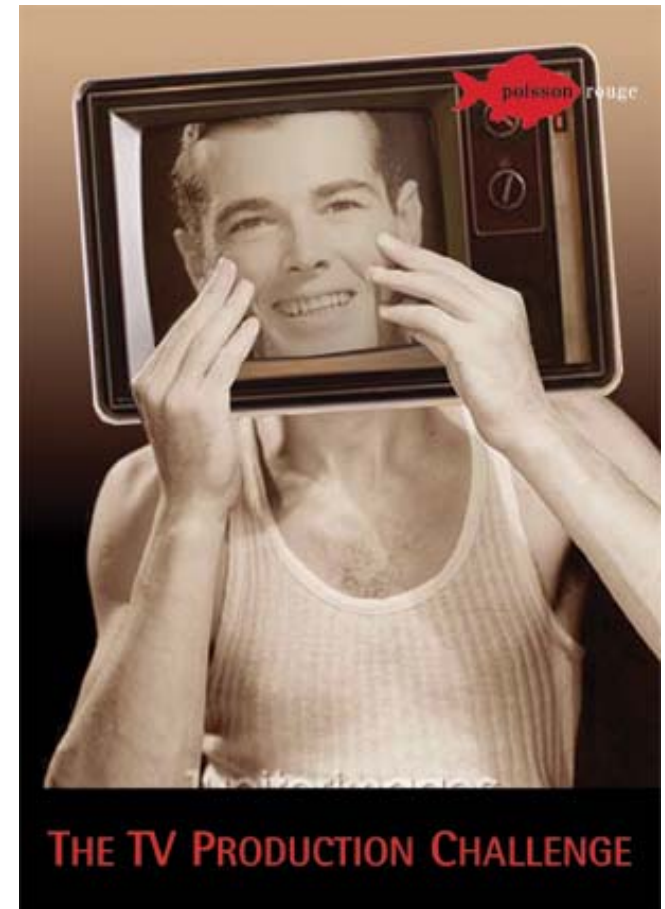

As with real TV, everything is time disciplined—you are not on location making a film to bring back—this is live TV and there isn't long before you go to air. The pressure is well and truly on!!

This Challenge is quite simply brilliant fun, an incredible insight into the TV industry and it really requires people to pull together, be creative and work effectively as a team.

This Challenge is suitable for groups of 10—40 people, it lasts either a full or half day and can take place in multiple locations all over the UK.

The end result—your show is recorded and, depending on the occasion, is shown back to the group either before they leave or over dinner. All delegates leave with a DVD copy of their show.
